Subject: NOAA briefing on OR CZARA initial assessment letter delayed until tomorrow a.m.

The NOAA briefing on the OR CZARA initial assessment letter is delayed until 10:00am tomorrow. Allison Castellan, NOAA's CZARA programs lead, will let EPA know how their briefing goes. I gave Allison a download on our briefing. I let her know about the importance of EPA letting some of the key players know that the initial assessment letter was coming...and that we would be developing a brief desk statement to help ensure we send a consistent message on inquiries.
